

Satellite radio is coming of age....do not impede its future and let it realize it's full potential.....commercial free music, news,traffic reporting ; and whatever they come up with to make life easier and more enjoyable for all....thank god cable television survived threats to it's existance in the late 1960's.....REJECT NAB 04-160